2. Since the schemes are usually implemented at the District Level, the Standing Committee at the district level should submit its report to the State Level Standing Committee who would coordinate the recommendations of the District Level Committees and furnish the report for the State as a whole to the DGR, Government of India, Ministry of Defence, New Delhi.

The main objectives for the Standing Committee be to study the following aspects of the scheme and to make necessary recommendations :—

- (a) The main constraints faced by the ex-servicemen entrepreneurs in the grant of loan from financial institutions/banks.
- (b) The processing time of application from submission of application to RSB/ZSB to the actual receipt of the loan amount.
 - (i) In case there is any time lag between submission of application and actual receipt of loan, the main constraints in this regard shall have to be highlighted and remedies suggested thereof.
- (c) The reasons for the schemes not coming up to the expected level and suggest measures for its effective implementation.
- (d) Since the terms of reference of the schemes are altogether different and the source of funding are also different, separate recommendations may be made, each for SEMFEX-I, SEMFEX-II and SEMFEX-III schemes respectively.
- (e) Any other suggestion for the effective implementation of the scheme.
